Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Ryan Ryan

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Comments: I am so thankful not to be in Oakland during the Occupy protests. There is no excuse for the way the police have been treating people. They have exceeded the NYPD's terror by far. These are peaceful protesters doing nothing more than exercising their 1st Amendment rights. Rather than committing acts of terrorism and violence against them, they should be protecting their right to assemble. This is wrong and YOU need to stop it. Albany NY police have vowed not to arrest anyone not committing an act of violence. Sacramento DA has decided not to prosecute any Occupy Sacramento protesters. Take a page from their books and do the right thing for the people of your city. How can you govern and condone this type of violence being committed against your citizens? Do you support the people of your city or do you support the corporations that have taken the hope away from them? Figure out what side you are really on and let the people know. Support your city and it's residents. Stop the police from committing atrocities like this again.

Thank you for sending a message for peace.

If the sidewalk is damaged by a "City" tree, the City pays for the sidewalk repairs. Unfortunately for most homeowners, the bulk of these trees are not the City's. In that case the homeowner is responsible for sidewalk repairs. Liability for injuries to pedestrians is a fairly complicated set of rules, dealing with "notice", duty to notify, whether or not a certain ordinance has been passed., etc. On occasion the sidewalk gets repaired/replaced as part of a street renovation. Generally, if its your sidewalk (that is in front of your house), it is a good idea to maintain it.

Robert, Ilene and Glenfriends-

Funny thing about that.

Seems that people tripping on sidewalks were able to successfully sue City governments for a lot of money to compensate them for their injuries.

So different City governments appealed to the Courts and Legislature who ruled in their favor. Therefore-individual homeowners and landlords are fully financially responsible for repairs, replacements, liens, and lawsuits for their sidewalks.

City governments are only legally / financially responsible for repairs and replacements of the STREETS.

Homeowners MUST follow rules for your sidewalks (building codes, size, color of the cement, no decorative elements allowed, etc) that the City mandates.

Wish I had better news for you...

Best-

do property owners legitimately own the sidewalks in front of our homes? i thought it was city land?

Subject: [glenfriends] City does NOT pay for sidewalk repair / replacement costs

Dear Ilene and Glenfriends-

Unfortunately-when Greenwood Ave was notified by the City of Oakland we needed to pay for the repairs of our sidewalks, we got a fast education on the system.

1) The City ONLY pays for sidewalk repairs if a tree that was planted BY the City has broken your sidewalk. The City keeps an extensive list of every tree they have planted, and unless yours is on that list---you are on the hook for the repairs.

2) If the City cites you (as they did our block of Greenwood Ave) for having to repair the sidewalk in front of your house, the homeowner must repair / replace the sidewalk with a permit and pay for it themselves. Failure to do so means the City places a lien on your property, and sends a crew out to do the work. You are then billed and until it is paid---you won't be able to sell or re-fin your house.

3) If the area to be fixed is larger than 25 sq ft (5 ft wide x 5 ft long), the cost for a permit averages $400 per house plus the cost of labor which is approx. $11 per sq foot.

We put together a "How To Primer" on how we worked as a group and significantly cut our costs for 11 houses getting their sidewalks repaired/replaced. We got the City of Oakland to allow us to open ONE permit for the block which was shared equally by all, and we had a great Concrete Contractor give us an amazing bid for all the work being done at once.

Each house saved hundreds of dollars.

If anyone wants a copy-email me and I will forward separately.

Best-

Francesca on Greenwood

Subject: [glenfriends] Sidewalk repair on Dolores

I just noticed that the sidewalks on Dolores are being repaired and am eager to find out how residents got the City to do this. For years I've been asking my councilman, De La Fuente (who ardently supports the police action in downtown Oakland by the way), to help with getting our sidewalks repaired and have gotten nothing in response. Any suggestions would be welcomed.---Ilene

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That same evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and misguided attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades was completely unnecessary and has left a US veteran in critical condition.

Your violent and unwarranted approach to break up the Occupy Oakland camp is particularly appalling given the unique activist roots that Oakland embodies.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan,
I would like you to believe that the way the protest was handled was not peaceful. I would like you to believe that they intimidated and bullied the peaceful protest in the dark at 5:30 am in the morning. Please apologize. That would the most humane thing to do next. Don't feel intimidated that you must back up the police force with your statement that it was a peaceful dispersion. But if the police force intimidate you I sympathize with you; I feel sorry for you Jean Quan.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park.

The critical injury of a veteran who is completely unacceptable and un-American. The timing and nature of the raid and the use of excessive force escalated a peaceful protest into a violent scene that needlessly endangered the lives of American citizens. Exercising our First Amendment rights, especially when all that's being asked for is nonviolent economic reform, should not be an activity that puts Americans in a life-threatening situation.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Do you know what your police did? Citizens of Oakland did not start a war and yet the police used a pretty violent response on citizens who were unarmed, and peaceful.

I just want to let you know that in the end only Karma wins, and those who do wrong will be punished for their wrong deeds. We are ALL good people under God whom the police have hurt. There is no honor in this. Remember. No Honor!

Hope you take this learning lesson to teach your police how to conduct themselves and also remind them that they are not above the law.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan:

Like most of the millions of people who have seen footage of the heavy-handed actions yesterday by the Oakland PD in breaking up the peaceful protests in downtown Oakland, I am shocked and horrified at the tactics used. Even more appalling are the after-the-fact lies by your administration regarding (so far) the tossing of pyrotechnics directly into a crowd of persons trying to rescue an injured Iraqi War veteran whose skull had been fractured by an earlier police-hurled gas cannister, and the use of rubber bullets on the fleeing crowd, including children. The veteran's name is Scott Olsen, and his blood is on your hands. But, hey: at least no one's exercising their constitutionally-protected rights in Frank Ogawa Plaza any more, right?

The whole world is watching, and history is judging.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Subject: October 31st Deadline to File Answer to Notice of Intention To Circulate Recall Petition

Dear Mayor Quan,

The City Clerk advised that on Monday, October 24, 2011, the proponents of the recall measure filed their notice of intention to recall the Mayor.

You have the option of filing with the City Clerk "within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention" an answer to the proponents' statement. The answer must not exceed 200 words. (Elections Code section 11023(a)).

The deadline for filing the answer is Monday, October 31, 2011.

If you choose to file an answer, you also must serve a copy of the answer within seven days after filing of the notice of intention "by personal delivery or by certified mail, on one of the proponents named in the notice of intention." (Elections Code section 11023(b)).

The answer must be signed and shall be accompanied by the printed name and business or residence address of the Mayor. (Elections Code section 11023).

The proponents' statement and the answer by the officer who is the subject of the recall petition are intended solely for the information of the voters. (Elections Code section 11023(c)).

If you have any questions, please call me (X3815) or Mark Morodomi (X6101).

For your information, I have pasted Elections Code sections 11023 and 11024 below.

11023. Recalled officer may file an answer.

(a) Within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention, the officer sought to be recalled may file with the elections official, or in the case of a state officer, the Secretary of State, an answer, in not more than 200 words, to the statement of the proponents.

(b) If an answer is filed, the officer shall, within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention, also serve a copy of it, by personal delivery or by certified mail on one of the proponents named in the notice of intention.

(c) The answer shall be signed and shall be accompanied by the printed name and business or residence address of the officer sought to be recalled.

11024. Statement and answer for voter information.

The statement and answer are intended solely for the information of the voters. No insufficiency in form or substance thereof shall affect the validity of the election proceedings.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

For every protestor there are literally hundreds who cannot be there but who support and stand with those people and for the principles of the protest movement. Attacks against them are attacks against the 99% and should be carefully considered. Do not blame the victims. Do not try to silence us. We are angry and not willing to take it anymore.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I listened to Forum on KQED yesterday and heard the City representative explain that protesters were throwing bottles and whatnot. I understand needing riot gear or shields for protection. However, the approach with tear gas and confiscation of private property is alarming and upsetting. Freedom of assembly is a protected right in this nation.

These protests are in the interest of the people, including the police, for that matter, who presumably are not of the 1%.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I am forwarding the email you received fromm Daniel Shea to indicate my complete agreement with his words.

As a Vietnam Veteran who came home and joined Vietnam Veterans Against the War, I have long been a proponent of peaceful protests to present grievances and protest grievous injury. During more than 40 years of demonstrating, I have managed to remain injury-free – not so much due to police restraint as to the nonviolent nature of the demonstrations in which I've participated. I have been a participant in Occupy Sacramento and have been impressed with the mutual respect shown by both occupiers and police.

That Occupy Oakland met with a police response that included the use of "Flash Bang Grenades" and other dangerous devices is out of character with even the most outrageous responses in any of the other occupy cities. It puts a black mark on Oakland, one which extends to all of Northern California, if not the whole state.

I urge you to take steps to rein in the overreaction shown by the police. Your unfortunate comments which seem to support that action fly in the face of your reputation as a progressive.

Thank you,

Subject: Open Letter to Oakland Mayor Jean Quan over the Police Raids against Occupy Oakland under the cover of darkness

Dear Mayor Quan

This is an open letter to you, and is being Cc and Bcc to lists across the nation and the world

I am a Vietnam Combat Veteran and a National Board member of Veterans For Peace, our members includes men and women veterans of all eras and duty stations spanning the Spanish Civil War (1936-39), World War II, the Korean, Vietnam, Gulf and current Iraq wars as well as other conflicts and we have some 120 chapters throughout the United States. Our collective experience tells us that most wars have been based on lies, and that they have little to do with our National Security and more to do with Economic and/or Political Hegemony interests of Corporations and the Military Industrial Complex. Too, many of our soldiers and friends have died, been wounded, or mentally scarred defending what they believed were the fundamental truths or propositions that were supposed to serve as the foundations for what is to our Democracy. The right to free speech, and free assembly to air our grievances when those right have been abridged.

Thus, your ordering of the Raid on Occupy Oakland in the middle of the evening under the cover of darkness, smells to high heaven as one of the worse trespasses on those rights since the civil rights and anti-Vietnam War movements of the 60s and 70s. Your actions and the actions of the Oakland Police are not dissimilar to the secret police of the former Soviet Union, the Fascists of German and Italy or the dictators of any number of countries whom we have charged with Human Rights Violations for attacking their peaceful protests such as in Libya, Egypt, Tunisia, Syria. Governments have been overthrown for such actions, and in this case if you continue on this course, you should be recalled from office. Your only atonement would be to apologize and compensate those arrested and those whose tents and personal belongings have been trashed.

This has been an affront to our so-called "Democracy" the whole world has been watching, see links and posts below. You will see, that one of our brave members Scott Olsen was seriously injured with a fractured skull, let us pray that he will recover without any serious complications. Let it be known that Veterans For Peace along with our friends and supporters are very much in support of the Occupy Movements taking place across the country which iis a force that is spreading across the globe. Either you support our Constitution and the Right therein or you are against the very people your are sworn to represent and protect and a traitor to your office. I hope you will recognize your error of judgment and that you apologize and repair the damage, and allow for the return of the occupiers.

Sincerely

Daniel Shea

I just got off the phone with VFP Chapter 69 member Josh Sheperd, who was at 14th and Broadway in Oakland early this morning and witnessed much of what happened.

Josh said that after receiving several text messages with news of the Oakland PD taking down tents and arresting people, he decided to go to downtown Oakland and "see if, as a VFP member, I could help still the anger...to be between the police and the protesters...it seemed unconscionable to me that the police use the cover of darkness like that to do what they were doing."

He got to the front of the crowd (see photo link, above) and said he "felt a lot of tension in the air."

Shortly thereafter a barrage of "less than lethal" ordnance, tear gas, bean bags and flash-bangs was fired. He and the people he was with took off, regrouped, marched through part of downtown and returned to 14th and Broadway.

There, he went to the front of the crowd immediately, waving the VFP flag. He said the crowd seemed considerably calmer. "It might be just my impression, but there seemed to be a considerable desire for peace and the crowd expressed that."

Next, the Oakland PD issued the "you're going to get arrested if you don't leave" warning. Shortly after that, Josh said, "People in the rear of the crowd threw eggs at the police and that was the OPD's cue to fire another barrage."

In that barrage, VFP and IVAW member, Scott Olsen was struck in the head with some sort of projectile and was severely injured. Josh reports that Scott was admitted to hospital and has a fractured skull. His condition is stable but serious. Here are two videos, one showing Scott, wearing a VFP shirt, being carried away. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cMUgPTCgwcQ&feature=youtu.be
The other has some slow motion footage that shows flash-bangs being thrown by the police, including one into a group of people standing around someone in the street.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QqNOPZLw03Q&feature=youtu.be It's unclear whether that person is Scott Olsen or not.

IVAW Director, Jose Vasquez, said they are keeping up on the situation, have issued a press release and are contacting national media. They are asking people to call the Oakland Police Dept.

What you can do:

Call the Oakland Police Department 510-777-3333; 510-238-3365; 510-238-3131

Attend a rally at the OPD headquarters later today

Go to the nearest occupation encampment in your vicinity in solidarity

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

It is a constitutional right to peacefully gather/assemble. Not to mention the force used was obviously unnecessary, uncalled for and out of control. We the people have a right to peacefully assemble and peacefully protest. This is America not some 3rd world country where alleged democracy has yet to be the accepted Way.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I was so sad to see the actions in Oakland yesterday, minutes from where I work. I would have been horrified to see this kind of treatment of peaceful protests overseas, and was even more horrified to see it in our country and in Oakland.

You can't undo what happened last night, but you have a responsibility to try and address the wrongdoing and repair what damage you can.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Has anyone watched the news briefing on KTVU 2?

First let me say that I am not 100% with the 99%.

That being said, it almost feels as if they check every box in terms of diversity (Quan, Boyd, Santana and Jordan). They covered the right to free speech, coveried potential vectors/bio-hazards, justifying police action, and setting the stage to move forward.

Anyone feel bamboozled?

Greetings again,

I would also like to add the request that the City of Oakland at once begin hearings on the use of force by the Oakland Police Department, and allow testimony by the public to be submitted both orally and in video/audio/written formats. In particular, I think it is high time the City face the fact that it has failed crowd control protocols. Too often City Leaders rely on law-enforcement heavy solutions to public safety problems. When this happens, those in charge become blinded to solutions, and, to flip an old saying, when everything looks like a nail, they break out their hammers...

Part of the review should include when less than lethal force is authorized, by whom (and how they can be held accountable after the fact), and the use of rifles of any kind (shotgun, bean bag projectile, etc) as a means of close quarters crowd control (see the pictures below).

Also, I would like the serious problem of steroid abuse amongst law enforcement officers, and the problems inherent with its use (including overly aggressive behavior in crowd control situations) to be investigated, and protocols put in place on testing officers for these types of drug(s), especially after, but not limited to, a major incident.

I look forward to hearing your response.

Thank you,

-Joel on Arizona

Councilmember Schaaf,

It's a shame that City staff is not being forthcoming with the extent to which they harmed peaceful non-violent protesters last night in Downtown Oakland. Here is a picture of an injured protester:

source: http://twitpic.com/75wrpb

Perhaps the City Administrator's office might have missed this volley of flash-bang grenades thrown into the crowd of protesters at close range... even when they were attempting to help a fallen comrade who was clearly in pain in the street. This footage aired last night on KTVU:
www.youtube.com/watch?v=jkQ80BB-P0o

By the way, that man being carried out is a veteran.

This is not the first time OPD, and staff working with OPD, have misrepresented police actions at a demonstration. The Oakland Police Department acted in a ruthless and reckless fashion last night, to the detriment of many injured Oaklanders who were exercising their First Amendment rights. I am disappointed in Mayor Jean Quan for ordering this action, City Administrator Deanna Santana & Interim Police Chief Howard Jordan for implementing it, and any other City official who doesn't condemn these violent actions against non-violent protesters in our City.

The Occupy Oakland protests represent the frustration many folks have with the current political landscape. Regardless of whether you agree with that perspective, they have a right to vocalize it in a peaceful manner. Its the City's responsibility to work with demonstrators and help facilitated their First Amendment rights, not to shut them down, and certainly not to harm them with batons, projectiles, gas, and grenades.

This was truly a sad day for the City of Oakland.

Dear Neighbors,
I'm getting many questions about "Occupy Oakland" and the City's response tonight. I respected the directive to vacate the City Hall area this afternoon, so have not yet had all my questions answered nor had a detailed briefing, but I do want to share with you the information I have received from the Oakland Police Department and City Administrator tonight:

"At approximately 4:00pm this afternoon, “Occupy Oakland” protesters began convening in front of the Oakland Library located at 125-14th Street. The group of approximately 400 – 500 protesters began to move in the direction between 14th and Broadway, and 7th and Broadway. Protesters in the area of 7th and Broadway began throwing paint or other hazardous material at the officers who deployed gas as a defense tactic. At approximately 7:45pm, officers began to deploy gas after issuing the order to disperse. We have received no reports of injuries at the time of this release [10/25 at 8:30pm].

"The City remains committed to respecting free speech as well as maintaining the City’s responsibility to protect public health and safety. At this time, the Plaza is closed to the public while Public Works cleans up hazardous waste and debris. For instance, it is known that there is human waste on the sidewalks and head and body lice, bed bugs that need to be cleaned and sanitized before the Plaza can be reopened to the public. Rodent/Vector will be brought in to exterminate. Once the plaza is deemed safe, it will be available for peaceful daytime assembly between the hours of 6 am and 10 pm. but no camping or overnight stays will be permitted. The City’s goal is to clean up the Plaza to facilitate free assembly."

A more detailed memo is attached. A later communication I received at 10:13pm states the crowd is currently peaceful and dispersing and approximately five arrests had been made since noon. This incident and the Occupy movement inspire strong feelings in many of us. I welcome your questions and comments about this difficult situation in Oakland tonight.

Best,
Libby Schaaf,
Councilmember District 4

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Ru Cymrot-Wu

There is a man lying in a hospital tonight in critical condition because of your order. This man is a veteran who served two tours in Iraq, but he was assaulted by people who gave an oath to serve and protect him while he was home. On your order. Children and disabled people were put in harm's way, because they were peaceful protesters.
On your order.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Quan - I do not understand how you can be so obtuse about your position relative to the Occupy movement across the world.

#1 - This is not something that is simply affecting Oakland - its affecting EVERYONE.
#2 - Are you surprised that there is deep-seated resentment, frustration and vitriol in a time where there is over 16% underemployment, job growth is stagnant, our political system is ideologically divided like no time in history and the wealthy clearly are receiving quid pro quo deals with various members of congress to ensure our democracy is only for a few instead of the many?
#3 - Not only is your position non-sensical, its a tremendous missed opportunity politically. These people are working class Americans who just want their voice heard...why are you so afraid to go out and talk to these people? They are your constituents and you seem to have forgotten that.
#4 - You're spending a LOT of money on operations and police for non-violent protesters while Oakland has tremendous REAL crime issues. You're using poor judgement in your allocation of resources.

I suggest that you step down and save everyone else the trouble of recalling you. You have proven to be an ineffective mayor and your term will be forever plagued with this scandal. Its embarrassing. Its a blight on our country.

It takes courage to do the right thing. Step down.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dipal Gandhi

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I'm appalled at the actions of the Oakland police department! These are some of the worst beatings that have occurred in any of the occupy movements nationwide! The mayor should be held to account for the actions that took place as a direct result of her orders!

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Tear gas? Rubber bullets? Flash grenades? Vet with a fractured skull? Tell me it ain't true. It is true? I'm signing, and I'm coming down to protest.

I first heard that the police acted alone without your orders but now learning that you actually gave the orders to come down hard on people practicing their Constitutional rights I think you should be removed from office by what ever legal means that are provided. You're living in a dream if you think that the public will stand for this for much longer. Instead of a peaceful and reasonable solution to these tangible problems that we face this is how the force that promised to "protect and serve" react? I'm not afraid. They can (apparently) take our rights but let's see them take us ALL to jail...

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I believe that people have a right to occupy their public areas. The police and government are supposed to be at the service of the people, not exert martial control over the citizens. They could help, rather than impede. It's interesting to see how once people really start exercising their rights in an impacting way, we suddenly realize that maybe we are not as free as we have been told.

I work two blocks away from Oscar Grant Plaza in Oakland. I had been walking by the protestors for weeks without any reason to feel fear. Then, over the course of one day, the police presence in Oscar Grant Plaza, with their riot gear, tear gas, and rubber bullets, brought things to a violent head. The police are supposed to protect and serve! Instead, they filled our peaceful streets with poison gas. Stop the crackdown NOW, Oakland officials, so that me and my fellow nonviolent community members can feel safe once more in our streets, homes, and workplaces.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I was leaving from school Last night right before this all happened and the protestors were there peacefully, I even thought to myself "wow!they are doing such a great job protesting peacefully". Police officers are SO wrong, what is it about certain Oakland police officers? And what is up with the new city Mayor, can't she take a stand and allow the protestors to remain there peacefully?, I thought she was a new/better type of leadership..

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I am outraged that while our young military men and women are fighting and dying for the rights peaceful protest in the Middle East, our own government officials are using violence against citizens who protest peacefully here. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. I voted for Mayor Quan, and expected much more tolerance. Why didn't they try to negotiate a new space for the protest, or revolving venues? The police said they had to fire tear gas canisters and use night sticks to protect themselves. Really? A 5 a.m. rout? No wonder the protesters were angry!

Greetings

Mayor Quan

I read so much about the Protest in Oakland. I want to do something to help, I have been Praying for you and the Oakland Police Department. I also want to help the Community and their right to peacefully protest. I'm a native of this great State and City. I'm not sure what I can do at this point except pray? I have been with you from the beginning of your Mayorialship and do not want to take sides, except to say, I love you and are with you and the Citizens of this great Community. Oakland is my home. Myself and my Family are watching this on T.V. this is crazy.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Look, I am tired of politicians changing their minds when they are in support of what people are doing to help themselves as well as the public. There seems to be NOBODY in government, local, state, or federal who wants to do the decent thing for its citizens. People are protesting for the justice they KNOW are lacking in big business which has in reality become the government. Any government official that seems to want to support the protesters then changes his or her support is a coward and is cowtowing to the "higher ups." This is OBSCENE!!! In this country, we have always had the RIGHT to protest when things are WRONG! Our we going to be a third world country like Iran and other countries not to be able to participate in our own opinions? Is this what's REALLY going on? You, the government should be ASHAMED!

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Kendra Armer

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Glenfriends,

I have been at Occupy (my tent was taken but I was not there Monday night), got gassed last night, and have worked with the OO Communication Committee. My understanding is that Jean Quan has directed the police to stand down and allow the Occupy Oakland General Assembly to go forward tonight starting at 6PM in the Plaza, and going on likely for at least a couple hours, as long as there is no violent behavior. She arrived late last night from D. C., and has put out a call to for all peaceful Occupy Oakland supporters to come out and assure that nobody causes violence that could force the police to act. I'll be there and hope you can spread the word to your friends and neighbors quickly, as we need to take some responsibility for discouraging the small group that might provoke a reaction.

Thanks.

Protesters that are doing this should not have to be brutally beaten by police. Obviously this occupy Wall St. is having a big impact on America. The corporations are starting to feel the heat. I can only really fear what they'll do next. But if people continue to stand up bravely, things will change! Although it might not be exactly what we want right away, things will change over time. The more you suppress 1st Amendment assemblies, the more not only East Bay will focus on what the 1% are up to in Oakland, but people around the world will realize that your city is a hotbed of corporate-inspired violence, rather than a center of progressive conscience and diversity.

Can you say with a straight face that the attack was for "public health and safety"?

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Police violence, through tear gas and rubber bullets, in response to and against peaceful protesters who are exercising their constitutional rights in our democracy is inhumane and disgusting. Please help put an end to the violence, it's unnecessary and the city should be supporting peaceful demonstrations instead of suppressing them through violent, forceful means.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I work on the Plaza and can see all of the action from my 11th floor window. I've been following this demonstration of peaceful citizens from the beginning.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

We are Americans with Constitutional rights that cannot be trampled by local bullies whose pay comes from our taxes. Stop terrorizing peaceful citizens and get on with the very serious business of addressing what makes Oaklanders feel truly unsafe! Hint: it isn't a bunch of campers with tents and drums. Shame on you, Mayor Quan! Shame on you, OPD (and all other cities that sent "peace officers" to make war on American citizens.) You all are the terrorists now! I'm certain all the citizens of Oakland felt much safer during last night's melee, than they did when folks were contentedly contained inside of a plaza not really disturbing anyone's life—certainly not in the way OPD disturbed so many people's lives last night. And, fyi, that includes loads of people that weren't involved with Occupy. I imagine your impressive show of brute force has inspired the formerly uninvolved to get involved. Thanks!

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

As the vice president of Veterans for Peace San Francisco, I demand that you stop attacking Occupy Oakland. There was no need to do so; the "issues" of "safety" your police quoted were not the emergency claimed and could have been addressed far short of the use of force. One of our own, Scott Olson, was hit in the head by a police weapon and is in critical condition in the hospital. Scott served two tours in Iraq as a U.S. Marine, and is a member both of Veterans for Peace (video of the incident shows him wearing a VFP shirt) and Iraq Veterans Against the War (IVAW). The attack on him will not be forgotten, and I assure you that we will take this to the media in a very loud and clear way. I demand that you order your police to stand down immediately from this unjustified attack on the basic right of free speech for which Scott fought for in Iraq, which was betrayed by our national government in sending him there, and now by your local government in physically attacking his and everyone's right to speak out.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Well, for a start, I imagine they include the few major corporations still here, the Port of Oakland which has way overspent in Jack London Square and is probably desperate to keep things calm, the police who use their obsession with order and obedience to mask their own fears, and the post-9/11 paranoia around government buildings.

Libby,

I am a life long Democrat, a member of the National Women's Political Caucus, the Wellstone Democratic Renewal Club, and the [glenfriends] listserve. I was there. I don't believe your report is anything but one-sided excuse and a cover up of anti-democratic police aggression. Now I am ashamed of you!

Dear Neighbors,
I'm getting many questions about "Occupy Oakland" and the City's response tonight. I respected the directive to vacate the City Hall area this afternoon, so have not yet had all my questions answered nor had a detailed briefing, but I do want to share with you the information I have received from the Oakland Police Department and City Administrator tonight:

"At approximately 4:00pm this afternoon, "Occupy Oakland" protesters began convening in front of the Oakland Library located at 125-14th Street. The group of approximately 400 - 500 protesters began to move in the direction between 14th and Broadway, and 7th and Broadway. Protesters in the area of 7th and Broadway began throwing paint or other hazardous material at the officers who deployed gas as a defense tactic. At approximately 7:45pm, officers began to deploy gas after issuing the order to disperse. We have received no reports of injuries at the time of this release [10/25 at 8:30pm].

"The City remains committed to respecting free speech as well as maintaining the City's responsibility to protect public health and safety. At this time, the Plaza is closed to the public while Public Works cleans up hazardous waste and debris. For instance, it is known that there is human waste on the sidewalks and head and body lice, bed bugs that need to be cleaned and sanitized before the Plaza can be reopened to the public. Rodent/Vector will be brought in to exterminate. Once the plaza is deemed safe, it will be available for peaceful daytime assembly between the hours of 6 am and 10 pm. but no camping or overnight stays will be permitted. The City's goal is to clean up the Plaza to facilitate free assembly."

A more detailed memo is attached. A later communication I received at 10:13pm states the crowd is currently peaceful and dispersing and approximately five arrests had been made since noon. This incident and the Occupy movement inspire strong feelings in many of us. I welcome your questions and comments about this difficult situation in Oakland tonight.

wow, she wasn't even in town?

i was listening to NPR this morning and it got me to thinking... if the main concern was indeed to keep things sanitary, with rumors of people going to the bathroom in the streets, garbage, uncleanly cooking and rats, then jean herself should have gotten up on the podium and said something to the effect of...

"we as a city promote peaceful assembly but we have some serious concerns over sanitation. as many of you know, oakland is in grave financial straights and cannot afford to keep the encampment up to acceptable public health standards. we have identified the following issues that could lead to us having no choice but to forcibly shut down the occupy oakland encampments.

as a collective group, you must find a way and the funds to bring in rental outhouses, cleaning stations, garbage pickup, etc. if you follow on these demands to the city's health standards, you are free to stay. inability to satisfy these concerns will leave us no choice but to shut down the encampments" .

at least this way, the city's grievances have been voiced and the ultimatum made clear.

Regards,
Robby

Shame on Oakland?

Posted by: "Rolf Pedersen" rolfpedersen@mindspring.com rolf94602

While civil disobedience might very well be a legitimate social tool, I'd suggest the "mature" philosophy would recognize that breaking the law is not without consequence. Civil disobedience is not about breaking the law with impunity. I'd suggest the Oakland revision of Occupy Wall Street does a disservice to what might be the legitimate core of this initiative. As modest counterpoint to "the police are lying" rationale, I submit the following.
Rolf

Take the case of Dana Frasz, a 27-year-old from Maine who is passionate about social change and is trying to start a food recovery organization in Oakland to help feed people. When she showed up at the protest and asked a woman how she could help, the woman shouted, â€œGet out of my face right now!â€ Fraszâ€™s friends, meantime, were put off by marches and meetings in which the constant refrain was, â€œ(Expletive) this, (expletive) that, (expletive) the police.â€ â€œI understand that people are angry; I get it, everyoneâ€™s angry,â€ said Frasz. â€œIâ€™m completely supportive of the movement, but I donâ€™t think my experience or the way that Occupy Oakland is being run is a reflection of themovement overall.â€Many others seem to agree. Russ Tilleman, a 52-year-old retired engineer and self-described activist, worked briefly to assist the movement with its media relations until a couple of the more radical people inside the camp threatened his life repeatedly. He now only shows up with friends who can help him out if heâ€™s threatened again. It was Tilleman who helped defend a young photography student who was at the movement to document the faces of some of the protesters. The student was also threatened and had to leave. These are not isolated incidents.

- http://oaklandtribu ne.ca.newsmemory .com/publink. php?shareid= 25b0a55b3

At one of the tensest moments near Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, sparks from explosives thrown at officers by protesters and police tear gas canisters could be seen exploding over the scattering crowd.

The number of protester injuries was not immediately known, but there was an unconfirmed report from a first-responder on the scene that a protester was struck in the head by a tear-gas canister. Two officers were hurt when protesters splattered them with paint.

By mid-evening the crowd had not dispersed, and an earlier tweet by Occupy Oakland organizers gave locations where the group wanted people to congregate and urged demonstrators to "bring bottles."

Wow. That's really not what happened. I saw it on livestream, and those sparks were clearly coming from things POLICE were throwing at the protesters. I guess the city has decided to out-and-out lie about it.

It would be good to hear from someone who was there.Â Last night,Â I got thereÂ after work, but had to leave early to watch the news coverage at 6 p.m..Â (Catching the #18 to get home was a nightmare on Broadway.)Â Between Channel 2 and 4, which had the longest coverage,Â the media seemed sympathetic to the protesters.Â The reporters stayed with them and also felt the effects of the tear gas.Â
Â
I seriously think these police from different County areasÂ should have kept their cool, shielded themselves with their plastic shields from any flying objects,Â and not used tear gas and rubber or bean bag bullets last night or at the encampments as their first reactions.Â The police should have showed more self control and not antagonized the protesters, who were understandably angry.
Â
Not only are the OOers and protestors upset, but so are many in the community and union members who were present yesterday.
Â
However, there were some OOers who are antagonistic to the media.Â This is understandable too, butÂ one newscaster said he was spit upon last nightÂ and I witnessed an NBC cameramanÂ near meÂ in the previous week get harrassed at OO while he asked them, "What about freedom of the press?"

Â
It's true that not all OOers are the same.Â It is a very mixed group, but it is not the same as the Oscar Grant protesters.Â This group avoided the mistakes made by outside agitators during the Oscar Grant riots.Â I think more experienced activists and union organizers helped make sure of that.
Â
Regards,
Kit

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Cairo's police must of trained Oakland's. Seriously OPD is like many PDs. They have a pack mentality. If one loose cannon gets crazy.. well you saw what happens. Quan's a sad example, I'll just leave it at that.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Oakland police are well-known for their quick jumps to force when none is called for, and this past year they have only been escalating. By giving the protesters virtually no notice and expecting all to disperse from a two-week camped rally with no effort made to find a middle ground, I believe Mayor Quan herself is responsible for this outcome.

To those who antagonized the police at the front line (yelling "eff u" etc.), you may hold some blame for the level of violence that occurred (you should have known better). I'm in no way excusing the actions of the police. I'm saying that some people in the crowd felt safe because they were part of a crowd, and so mouthed off to known bullies in riot gear. If you're allowed to regroup, I hope you'll be more thoughtful next time.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Wendy Kaufmyn

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

To: Quan, Jean; Office of the Mayor
Subject: Occupy briefing materials - given Oakland's poor showing, 10/25.2011

Dear Mayor Quan and City Council:

I emailed a complaint yesterday about the police handling (multi-agency) of the Occupy encampment in downtown Oakland. I'm sure you all have seen the national news coverage of it - not very flattering. No spin will remedy the damage to the City of Oakland's reputation of the inept police actions that took place.

As much as I am disappointed in the leadership of our city with regard to this situation, I want to share general information about the Occupy movement that might help with an understanding that this effort is a "teaching moment" for our community - not an excuse for continued mishandling by police.

I am not anti-police. I am anti-violence and ignorance on the part of our police department, which after 10 years plus, still hasn't complied with the federal consent decree it signed. Shame shame.

That said here is some information:

1. a live feed camera, which is a wondow on the Occupy efforts and a live tweet feed from around the world - http://www.livestream.com/globalrevolution

2. a legal "fact sheet" link developed in NY, most of which applies in Oakland: http://www.nycga.net/resources/legal-fact-sheet/

3. link to the "principles of solidarity" working draft - which explains what the intention of Occupy is: http://www.nycga.net/about/

And you can take it from there.

The Occupy movement is not about Oakland, or Sacramento, or any other particular city in the U.S. It's about fairness to all Americans. Surely you as elected officials can embrace this concept and instruct our City servants to embrace and respect it as well.

And surely as elected officials you have the authority and moral prerogative to prohibit public servants - especially police agencies - to stop all violence. There is simply no excuse or use for it.

Sincerely yours,
Sue Taylor

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Because Oakland is where I live and I am so ashamed of this Mayor and the Police Dept. going along with her orders.She already screwed- up our Police Dept..If our Police Chief had not resigned I don't believe this would have happened.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

As a middle-aged, ostensibly middle-class woman I am outraged by the behavior of the Oakland city government in this instance!!!! The Occupy movement is the ONLY thing that gives me any hope at ALL these days of ANY future correction in this increasingly corrupt society. I feel as though we are all living in what is essentially a "Banana Republic".....moving towards a true Feudal State. Only the inspiration behind the Occupy movement can prevent this ultimately fatal descent.....a descent which has been accelerating for the last 30 years! They should only be supported!!

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Why wouldn't the Councillors be in sympathy with this movement? What are they afraid of? Oakland's image is elevated by the peaceful protestors and made repugnant by the behavior of the police.

There could only be one reason that those police were ordered to roust the protesters at 4:30am... because they needed the cover of darkness and the absence of real media scrutiny to prevent the world from seeing an unwarranted attack on peaceful/sleeping protesters. I sent a letter to President Obama condemning this type of police brutality. You can read that letter at: www.washboardexpress.com

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I don't know too much about just anyone subject in life and am not going to pretend that I have the answers but today when I saw on the news all those people, just trying Mrs. Quan,I saw them get gassed for it ,out of the few thing I know right and wrong is one of them.
I don't know if you've ever been teargased before but I did once,I got caught in it as a innocent bystander,I was 15 years old and the cops couldn't help me,and because they were the ones doing it.Its hard to feel safe anymore.
now im sure that this wont ever even meet you eyes but by the luck of god I pray that we can use our heads and try and remember what they taught us about right and wrong.

and thank you for your time if you did have a chance to read my letter.

The Occupy Oakland is a PEACEFUL/NON-VIOLENT demonstration and remained so until the police brought the violence and released it onto the protestors. There were children, disabled, and elderly people in the crowd when the police threw tear gas and flash grenades. The rights and changes that the occupy Oakland demonstrators are asking for will not only benefit the majority of Oakland and Bay Area residents but would also benefit the police officers that are carrying out these outrageous orders!

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Subject: Mayor Quan, an inquiry from a concerned citizen

Could this possibly be true? Is any part or portion of this report even partially accurate?

"Scott Olsen is a 24-year old former marine and a member of Veterans for Peace. He served 2 tours in Iraq and came home safe. Then, in Oakland, he was struck in the head by a rubber bullet or other "non-lethal" projectile, fracturing his skull and damaging his brain. When others tried to help him, they too were deliberately shot with rubber bullets and flash bang grenades. Scott remains unconscious and in critical condition, suffering from brain swelling."

I can't believe that it could of been any one's intention to use lethal force on unarmed protesters, but if even any part of this is true, I hope we can count on you to hold the officers and officials responsible for this accountable.

I am well aware of how difficult the job of police officer can be, but this can not be considered acceptable in the United States of America.

I am not asking you to respond to me personally, but I ask you to respond publicly to the citizens of Oakland on this matter.

Thanking you for your time,

Stuart Armor

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Debbie Summers

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

laurie baumgarten

Was this the same projectile type that they used at the port?

A 24-year-old Iraq War veteran was critically injured by a projectile that struck him in the head during the chaotic conflict Tuesday night.

Police Chief Howard Jordan says an internal review board and local prosecutors have been asked to determine if officers on the scene used excessive force.

THIS IS A BREAKING NEWS UPDATE. Check back soon for further information. AP's earlier story is below.

A clash between Oakland police and Occupy Wall Street protesters left an Iraq War veteran in critical condition Wednesday after a projectile struck him in a conflict that came as tensions intensified over demonstrators' encampments across the San Francisco Bay Area.

Scott Olsen, 24, suffered a fractured skull Tuesday in a march with other protesters toward City Hall, said Dottie Guy, of the Iraq Veterans Against the War. The demonstrators had been making an attempt to re-establish a presence in the area of a disbanded protesters' camp when they were met by officers in riot gear.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Tim Coco

I believe thatt the Occupy movement is really important to keep nonviolent - on all sides. If governmental/police crackdowns bring in violence, it's equally important to raise our voices in vocal protest.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Grace Severtson

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

WHY the 180 degree turn around, first Quan "allows" it, then she orders police to attack brutally while the protestors sleep? Did Quans handlers, her bosses tell her to do this? Time for a recall in Oakland. Do the police think they did the right thing or are the just following orders like the brownshirts and Gestapo that they resemble? When are police going to stop following illegal orders and think for themselves?

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 25, 2011

"Occupy Oakland " Activity Update

Oakland, CA. At 9:15pm, Police Chief Howard Jordan addressed members of the press to provide an update on the "Occupy Oakland" Operation in the City of Oakland . "The City is committed to facilitating peaceful protests and constitutional policing" stated Chief Jordan. He went on to say that the number of protesters had reached upward of 1000 individuals. It was reiterated that the action to remove the "camp" was based on health and public safety concerns. Also in attendance were Council President Larry Reid and Council Member Ignacio De La Fuente. Mr. De La Fuente commended the Oakland Police Department and City Administration for taking steps to ensure the health and public safety of all residents, including the protesters.

During the evening protest, a number of officers were assaulted, doused with hazardous materials and hit with large rocks and bottles, which resulted in the declaration of an unlawful assembly and the order to disperse. To assist in the dispersal efforts, officers used less lethal force tactics.

At approximately 10:00pm this evening, a group of approximately 300 protesters in the area of Frank Ogawa Plaza began throwing large rocks and bottles at officers after receiving the order to disperse, which again prompted the use of less than lethal munitions. At the time of this release, there are approximately 200-300 protesters in the area of 14th and Broadway and enforcement efforts are continuing.

The next media briefing will take place tomorrow morning at a time to be determined.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Quan, are you aware of the full text of the First Amendment?

You should defend and respect the Occupy Wall Street protesters' First Amendment Rights which prohibits the making of any law
1) respecting an establishment of religion,
2) impeding the free exercise of religion,
* 3) abridging the freedom of speech,
4) infringing on the freedom of the press,
* 5) interfering with the right to peaceably assemble, or
6) prohibiting the petitioning for a governmental redress of grievances.

I hereby remind you, Mayor Quan, of your duties as a defender of the American Constitution.

Thank you.

I am a former long-time resident of Oakland who still takes an interest in my former home. It's a beautiful city filled with beautiful people. I am shocked and dismayed at this recent assault on peaceful, nonviolent demonstrators. Mayor Quan: how can you authorize this recent action after having marched along with the protestors? This makes no sense, and you know it.

To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Keep in mind that "we" are the 99%. There are many of us who won't mind joining the Oakland movement to show support. You need to mediate any immediate concerns to allow peaceful protest to continue.
This is in everyones best interest,

Keep the Peace.

Sincerely,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more disturbing that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors. Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Alice Kostin

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.
